

Manager Planning	Qualification: Minimum 16 years education in Environmental Engineering / Sciences / Management / Civil or Mechanical Engineering. Experience and Expertise: Minimum 5 (five) year experience in of planning and management. The ideal candidate must have sound understand of the strategic planning and decisions making tools, mathematical modeling, local government policies and procedures regarding solid waste Upper Age Limit:45 years JDs: Develop comprehensive solid waste management plans throughout the year in accordance with special events in coordination with operations staff for technical assistance and support during the planning process. Review, provide comments, and recommend approval or disapproval of plans, consistent with company policies and make long range planning decisions and design public involvement strategies. Independently serves as the technical and procedural resource facilitating person for new researches in the solid waste management field and identify potential opportunities. Support implementation of these plans by guiding improvements to existing programs and encouraging the creation of new programs. Coordinate with public departments and other stakeholders to prioritize solid waste management issues in Company’s jurisdictions and evaluate planning alternatives.
-------------------------	---